WHAT WE DO:

Here are some of the services that the Animal Welfare Society offers:

- Offer a full range of veterinary services to the underprivileged and disadvantaged communities of Cape Town.
- Focus on education in the schools, and in our communities.
- Sterilise every animal that comes through our doors, as well as running sterilisation campaigns.
- Take in stray and unwanted pets, and rehome them.
- Respond to calls regarding cases of abuse, general neglect of animals, as well as reported cases of dog fighting.
- We also respond to reports from the City's Traffic Department, SAPS and Metro Police, of injured or stray animals on our public roadways.
